

The Mandt System®

Instructor Training Cost Comparison Tool

Cost Comparison Tool

This comparison tool is designed to measure instructor certification training programs which consist of organizational staff becoming instructors for staff within their setting.

Comparison Description	The Mandt System	Company 2	Company 3
Nationally recognized model "utilized across multiple disciplines"	Yes
Training Days Required	2-4 days plus online portion, dependant upon level of certification desired
Cost for Instructor Certification at open enrollment class	The individual fees are: R – $875 RC – $1270 RCT – $1,655 RCT + Advanced – $2,370
Recertification	Required every 2 years. 1-2 days plus an online component, dependent upon certification level.
Required purchase of materials to deliver training i.e., workbook	None – Workbooks are available for purchase but NOT required. Copies can be downloaded for free and reproduced within copyright
Cost to purchase certificates for training delivered	None – Certificates for students trained within their agency are e-mailed upon completion of course report
Manual provided	Yes
Video of Physical Skills provided	Yes
Online Course Reporting	Yes – at the completion of the training, the agency's instructor submits a course report which generates certificates for those trained
Annual Membership Fee	None

Comparison Description	The Mandt System	Company 2	Company 3
Can I train the Mandt Program outside my base of employment?	Yes – We offer the opportunity to become a Mandt Student Academy, which allows you to teach at a student level and earn revenue to recoup some of the investment of having an instructor
Online Learning Options	Yes – Mandt offers a blended option for student level training where a seat can be purchased and assigned, allowing a significant savings and reduction on required in-person class time
Online Testing	Yes – This is available and can be used as a student recertification ‘Test Out’ of non-physical chapters once the student has experienced two in-person trainings
Program Focus and Goal	The Mandt System program is designed with a prevention focus . The curriculum is structured as 53% oriented to Prevention, 28% to De-Escalation and 19% to Intervention
Focus on relationship building	Yes – both staff to staff and staff to service recipients
Curriculum specific to Conflict Resolution in core program	Yes – Chapter 3
Curriculum specific to Trauma Informed Cultures in core program	Yes – Chapter 4
Curriculum specific to Positive Behavior Support in core program	Yes – Chapter 5
Curriculum specific to Legal Issues in core program	Yes – Chapter 6
Physical techniques assessed by a biomechanical/ biomedical engineer	Yes – every technique assessed and approved

Comparison Description	The Mandt System	Company 2	Company 3
Physical restraint techniques employing the use of arms crossed over midsection	Prohibited
Physical restraint techniques employing the use of moving people off-balance	Prohibited
Use of prone restraint holds as transition for person who is on the floor	Prohibits any floor restraints EXCEPT to transition the person from the floor
Online instructor resource center at no charge	Yes
Tool to assess current training needs at no charge	Yes
Telephone support with training faculty at no charge	Yes
Online support from Mandt System® faculty at no charge	Yes
Implementation support following training	Yes

Call (800) 810-0755 or (800) 542-9633
info@mandtsystem.com | www.mandtsystem.com

We are pleased to provide this tool for your organization to compare programs. Remember, if you have any questions on how we partner with you to serve people, please call us at either phone number above.